Store the imaging plate max 24 hours packed before the exposure.
KaVo Scan eXam™ One – Image capturing

1. Make sure the right patient is selected.
   Activate the Scan eXam™ One unit by pressing the Device button in the Image Capturing window if it is not in the ready-state.

2. Exposure time (s)
   Position and exposure.

3. Process max 1 hour from exposure.
   Remove the plastic hygiene bag.
   Feed the imaging plate carefully into the unit with protective cover.

4. Imaging plate is ready for reuse.
   Handle with care after exposure.
   Hygiene bags and protective covers are single use items.
KaVo Scan eXam™ One – Installation

1. Connect the cables.
   - Switch the unit on.
   - Do not position the system in direct sunlight.

2. Insert the software installation media (DVD) and launch the software installer if it does not start automatically.
   - Select a correct setup.

3. Configure the devices with the Add Device Wizard.
   - If the Wizard does not open automatically, press Finish.

4. Select the desired device from the list and press Finish.

5. Take a test image.
   - correct exposure
   - over exposure
   - under exposure

A always needed, B optional.